Student Life

Church & Community

RTI students are encouraged to engage in community at Salem Alliance Church. You will have opportunities beginning in your freshmen year to serve in church ministry, outreach ministries, social businesses or other local non-profits. You will build significant relationships with your peers and professors as class sizes are intimate allowing for richer discussions.

While RTI is unable to offer traditional dorm living, our staff will work with you to secure housing. Many of our students choose to share an apartment or home.

Cohort Culture

Reach Training Institute is designed around a cohort model. When you enter RTI as a freshmen, you will follow a schedule of courses and practicums with your cohort over the next 4 years.

The cohort experience allows for RTI students to grow in close relationships with one another and prepare for a future career in vocational ministry. The experiences learned in your RTI cohort will develop your skills in teamwork and collaboration.
